

RELIEF FROM PRESSURE

IS IT POSSIBLE?

RESULTS OF PRESSURE

SUICIDES—world wide 1,000 each day.

MENTAL ILLNESSES—up to 1/3 of the population.

PARENTS ABANDON FAMILIES—1,000,000 a year in U.S.A.

HOW SOME SEEK RELIEF FROM PRESSURE

- ◆ Alcoholic Drink
- ◆ Tranquilizing Drugs
- ◆ Promiscuous Sex
- ◆ Entertainment

But, afterward aren't the same pressures there?

CAN THE BIBLE HELP?

Millions found it can—note some actual examples:

Housewife filed for divorce, suffered nervous breakdown, attempted suicide. She and husband accepted Bible study. Communication improved and they are now happy, united couple.

FAMILY PROBLEMS SOLVED

They learned the Bible says: 'A husband should love his wife as himself and a wife should deeply respect her husband.'—Ephesians 5:33.

A lonely old man prepared poisonous brew. Before he drank it, two young visitors interrupted, shared hope from Bible. Their genuine friendship helped him find new meaning in life.

FACE OLD AGE WITH HOPE

He saw this Bible principle in operation: 'True Christians find many real friends, who become like sons and daughters to them.'—Mark 10:29, 30.

A family lived in poverty, not having even a table. The father, a drunkard, squandered money on wine. A study of Bible helped him stop drinking. Now family has not only table, but ample food on it.

ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT

Why the change? Heeding the Bible counsel: 'Do not get drunk, but let spiritual matters fill your mind and heart.'—Ephesians 5:18-20.

Youth disillusioned by adult hypocrisy and selfishness. Became drug addict, attempted suicide and ended up in hospital. Fellow patient suggested Bible study. Now finds his life took on real meaning.

YOUTH LEARNS TO COPE

What did he realize? 'A just God exists who has a personal concern for him, who cares for him and will help.'
—1 Peter 5:7-10.

Thousands more tell how Bible principles help to cope with pressure.

YET, THE BIBLE OFFERS EVEN MORE...
